

APRIL 25 & 26, 2018

RESPECTING RIGHTS

“Respecting Rights is a legal rights advocacy group in Ontario. We work to improve access to rights for people labelled with an intellectual disability. We are housed at ARCH Disability Law Centre in Toronto.”

Respecting Rights is offering two accessible workshops in St.Marys using videos, role plays, and much more to teach people about the legal rights of people labelled with an intellectual disability.

One workshop is for family members of someone with an intellectual disability and developmental services staff. The second workshop is for people labelled with an intellectual disability.

Being held at:
St.Marys United Church
85 Church St. S.
St.Marys ON

---

Wednesday April 25
6pm – 8pm
For Families & Staff

---

Thursday April 26
10am – 1pm

For People First members and self-advocates

*lunch included

---

Hosted by:
People First
St.Marys/Stratford
CL St.Marys
CL Stratford

RSVP by April 24, 2018

Marg McLean, 519-284-1400 x 225
or mmclean@clstmarys.ca