Policy and Procedures

Introduction

The Policy and Procedures Manual is intended to be a complete book of the current policy decisions of the Board of Directors.

Policies are the Board's statements of the decisions it has made regarding certain questions that have been raised. Generally, policies follow good practice. The spirit of the policies should reflect the mission and principles of the Association. Policies should be looked at as direction and parameters in which decisions are made. It would be impossible to create a policy for every action that will be taken within the Association. Attempts to do so, lead to lack of creativity, compassion and initiative. However, there are questions that are asked again and again. In these instances, policies are created. Policies are motions that are moved and seconded and noted in the Board of Directors minutes.

Under extraordinary circumstances, there may be times when an exception or modification to a policy or procedure is required before a fulsome review can be accomplished. In these limited conditions, the Board may vote to override part or all of a policy on a one-time basis. In this case, a two-thirds majority of the whole board must approve the variation.

Procedures are the how to's. They describe how a particular policy is to be carried out.

Since both policies and procedures are decisions made from time to time by the Board of Directors, they can be changed by the board. It is a good rule of thumb, that if a policy is getting in the way of providing the level of support outlined in the mission and principles, then it is time for review.

Policy # V 2

Policy: Services Values

Approved by the Board of Directors: May 28, 2012

The Association provides services which are responsive to the person using or requesting these services and to their family and friends. Supports and/or planning are based on the person's talents, needs, hopes and desires, choices and preferences as expressed by the person themselves or through those closest to them and the principles of service.

Provision of Service is based on:

1. Individualization

All support and planning and facilitation services provided by the Association are individual and reflect what the person, their family and friends have said are needed.

2. Choice and Empowerment

Each person receiving support and their family and friends provide the major input to planning and decision making regarding the support required from the Association. In making these choices, the person and their group accept the obligations and responsibilities inherent in the decisions made.

3. Flexible, Portable Resources

The Association has limited resources in terms of human resources and funding. These resources are allocated based on individual needs and circumstances in a fair and equitable manner.

The Association has a system of individual budgets. Disbursement of these funds is directed by the person and their family and friends and/or the Association. All or part of the funds identified for a person's support may also be moved to another service provider with the assistance of the Association and in consultation with the Ministry.

Procedure

1. Any services provided will be based on the plan developed by the person; and be consistent with the Association's vision, mission, and principles and meet any relevant regulations.
2. If the resources allocated to a person are insufficient, it is the responsibility of the person and their family and friends to actively seek and/or provide the additional resources. The Association will provide support to do this as requested.
3. If a person chooses services which fall outside the vision, mission and principles of service, the Association will assist the person to acquire these services from another service provider.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Association is an elected body that acts on behalf of the membership to carry out the activities of the organization. It is mandated by the Corporations Act of Ontario through the Letters Patent. The board is responsible for the management of the whole Association. It is accountable to the membership for all of its decisions.

The board is the body within the organization that is liable for all actions taken on its behalf by employees and volunteers. Given this level of responsibility, the board creates policies to be followed when making decisions.

The membership gives the board a mission and principles to act as guidelines when making decisions. It is the board's responsibility to ensure that the policies adhere to these parameters.

In order to accomplish this undertaking the board has developed ways of organizing its activities. These include committees which recommend policy to the board and employees to carry out the policies of the board through procedures.

The Board's functioning is outlined in the Bylaws of the organization. These need to be consulted for the election procedures, terms of office, officers, job description of officers, committees, fiscal year and removal of officers or board members.

Boundaries:

Trust is the foundation upon which best practice support occurs. Diligence in the management of boundaries, self-management and organizational management, is essential to foster, nurture and maintain trusting relationships between people supported and employees and volunteers. Employees and volunteers can be seen to be in a position of power and must always act in the best interests of people supported.

When employees and volunteers may be the only individuals who interact with or advocate on behalf of people, there is a high propensity to fall into the 'we are family' mode of thinking. Recognizing the power differential and not misusing this power is imperative.

Relationship Characteristics	Professional	Personal
Money	Money is paid to the staff for care only as long as the staff are employed by the agency Volunteers choose to work with service recipients and may change their minds at any time	Shared power Money not exchanged for time spent together.
Length	Limited to the duration of employment or volunteering commitment	May last a lifetime

Policy: Hours of Work

Approved by the Board of Directors: April 23, 2007

Mar 22, 2021

Revised: Aug 2013, Aug 2019, Mar 2021

Hours of work for each employee will be set out in the letter of employment. It is expected that each employee will be available for work and will fulfill their obligations unless reassigned or authorized. The Association also recognizes that the actual day to day work time may vary depending upon the particular needs of the person receiving support services. Employees will need to be flexible in planning each work day.

Procedure

1. A normal work period of two weeks is up to 80 hours. It is expected that this will only be exceeded if there is an emergency need for supports.
2. It is understood that the employee will be available for work recognizing that from time to time sickness or injury may result in innocent absenteeism. If the employee expects or intends to be absent from work, they must notify their supervisor so that arrangements can be made.
3. If an employee is not required to work their regularly scheduled hours and is given less than 12 hours' notice, then they are entitled to be paid for their regularly scheduled hours up to a maximum of three. In the event a meeting specific to a person, such as a team meeting, is cancelled with less than 12 hours' notice, employees (provided they were attending) will be compensated up to one hour pay at their regular rate.
4. Overtime is calculated at time and a half. Overtime is considered to be any hours worked over 88 hours averaged over 2 weeks with a signed Overtime Averaging Agreement. (Applies to full-time, non-salaried employees only).
5. Authorization for overtime must be obtained prior to the work being done and may be a condition of payment.
6. In an emergency situation where prior approval was not given, the employee will notify their supervisor on the hours worked as soon as it is feasible to do so.
7. Salaried employees will be compensated for overtime with the equivalent time off, with pay, at a mutually agreed upon time.

6. Notification

Once a final decision is made, the successful candidate will be notified and asked to present a current Police Vulnerable Sector check before an offer to hire can be extended. Policy: Seniority

Approved by the Board of Directors: July 6, 2006

The Association supports the concept of seniority for recognizing the contribution of an employee and for determining specified rights and benefits.

Procedure

1. Seniority is defined as the total of hours worked for the Association.

If the date of hire was prior to January 1, 1990, information from the personnel records and negotiation with the employee will determine the number of hours before January 1, 1990. This number of hours will be added to the hours worked following January 1, 1990.

For all dates of hire following January 1, 1990 to the present, records of hours worked are maintained.

2. An updated seniority list is available from Central Administration annually.

3. The employee's anniversary date is the anniversary of the date of hire. The anniversary date is used to determine vacation time, merit increases, length of service and seniority with the Association.

4. A second anniversary date is created when an employee accepts a different position within the Association. This second anniversary date is used to determine times for performance reviews and merit increases.

5. If an employee is not working for a period of time, seniority is not lost unless the period exceeds one year.

6. When employment is terminated, seniority ceases and will only accumulate from any new date of hire.

Policy # HR 16

Policy: Disciplinary Action

Approved by the Board of Directors: July 6, 2006

Revised: April 2015

The Association expects that all employees and volunteers will maintain the highest standard of performance possible and that supervisors will address all issues of performance as they arise. Performance that fails to meet the standard will be addressed in a progressive, positive manner which encourages and guides the employee to better their performance through a process of mutual discussion and goal setting.

Procedure

1. Supervisors will ensure that each employee knows and understands the standards of performance outlined in the Policy Manual, job description, performance appraisals, individual Support Plans or contracts of employment.
2. The Association will make every effort to enable employees to perform their jobs competently and effectively through regular supportive supervision.
3. If overall performance or a particular aspect of performance is below the expected standards, steps will be taken to help the employee bring the performance to a satisfactory level.

Step 1 The supervisor will call a meeting with the employee to discuss the performance standard expected. The discussion will reflect:

- a. The nature and seriousness of the problem.
- b. Preceding circumstances.
- c. Employee's performance record.
- d. Any mitigating circumstances.
- e. The number of incidents involved.
- f. Time interval and employee response to prior disciplinary action(s).

A plan will be developed to change the performance and a date to review the implementation of the plan will be set. This discussion will be recorded, labelled as a verbal warning and placed on the employee's personnel file.

It is expected that in most instances, the performance standards will be met and no further action will be needed.

Step 2 If the performance does not meet the standard or, if a similar incident of unsatisfactory performance occurs, the supervisor will arrange a meeting with the employee to discuss the issue and what action is needed to correct the performance. Following the discussion, a written report will be given to the employee including the date for performance review. A copy of this report will be placed on the employee's personnel file and will constitute the second warning.

Step 3 If the performance is still below expectations, following the meeting to discuss the performance, a third written warning will be given the employee outlining the steps to correct the performance and a date by which the performance is expected to meet the standard. This warning will contain any actions that will be taken if the performance does not meet the standard by the time agreed upon. Actions that could be considered are:

- a. Suspension
- b. Demotion
- c. Termination

4. When making decisions about disciplinary actions, consideration is to be given to all relevant circumstances, the extent or lack of appropriate training and orientation and the employee's explanation.

Policy: Problem Resolution

Approved by the Board of Directors: July 6, 2006

Revised: August 2013

The Association encourages and promotes open communication between all levels of the organization. Occasionally, there may be unresolved issues, disagreements or disputes that need to be discussed and resolved quickly and effectively for those involved.

Procedure

1. The Association expects that when an employee has a problem or concern about duties, responsibilities, expectations, the performance of any other employee, or any aspect of services provided by the Association, the employee would first discuss this problem or concern with the person most directly involved.

2. If the problem cannot be resolved, then the following steps for resolution may be taken.

Step 1 The issue can be taken to the immediate supervisor for discussion and resolution.

Step 2 Forward a written report of the employee/supervisor meeting and results to the next level of management. The issue is then discussed with all concerned and resolution is sought.

Step 3 Forward written report outlining all efforts to date and agreements made to the Executive Director. A meeting is then held and the results in written form are reported to the employee and the director.

Step 4 If the whole matter was unresolved, the matter with all documentation is to be submitted to the board President for consideration and resolution. A written report will be forwarded to the employee and the Executive Director. This resolution is considered final within the Association.

Policy: Reallocation of Hours

Approved by the Board of Directors: July 6, 2006

Aug 19, 2019

Revised: May 2017, July 2019

The Association expects that there will be changes in people's life circumstances and choices while the person is receiving support services. These changes may be caused by funding availability, resources required and other personal factors. When such changes occur, the Association will endeavour to implement any reductions or increases in service, layoffs or displacements fairly and equitably.

Procedure

1. In any consideration of reallocation of hours, the person receiving the support services and/or their designate are key decision makers in this process. Several factors will be taken into consideration.
2. When a decrease in hours happens within a team, the team leader may negotiate with all affected team members to realign their duties and share the decrease. Internal reassignments may also be explored. The best solution will have the least disruption for the person receiving supports, adheres to Association principles and fulfills employee obligation.
3. When the reduction of hours or wages regularly earned in a fiscal period is greater than or equal to 33% or when hours go from full-time to part-time, the employer, along with the employee, may begin a displacement process in a timely manner.

The process is:

The employee with the least seniority is the first on the displacement list.

An employee may displace another employee of lesser seniority who holds a similar position of the same responsibilities if:

- a. The employee is qualified.
- b. The employee meets the approval of the person receiving the support services and/or their designate.
- c. There are no outstanding personnel matters relevant to the hiring process.

If displacement is not possible, the employee may choose to displace to a less responsible position under the same process.

4. The employee will have only one opportunity to begin a displacement process for each reduction of hours as outlined above.
5. When hours have changed significantly, Letters of Employment must be written to reflect the current situation.
6. Policies and procedures related to layoffs will follow the Employment Standards Act.

Revised: August 3, 2016, Mar 2023

The Association strives to conduct all business in a fair and open way that requires all employees, volunteers and students to immediately disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest.

A conflict of interest is any situation where the employee, volunteer or student has a personal or business interest in conflict with the best interest of the Association or a person supported. A conflict of interest may occur when a direct or indirect personal gain, benefit, or privilege is given to or received by the employee/volunteer/student or their family member. This policy also applies to a scenario where a member of the public or a person supported by the agency would reasonably perceive the employee/volunteer/student to have a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest may be financial or non-financial in nature.

Procedure:

All financial transactions administered by the Association must adhere to the agency policies/procedures and any legislation as pertains to conflict of interest.

Some specific examples of conflicts of interest include:

1. A non-financial conflict of interest will exist where an employee/volunteer/student is placed in a position of power or of being able to influence decisions directly related to the services of the Association to a family member of the employee or someone in a family-like relationship with them.

2. A financial conflict of interest will exist where an employee/volunteer/student is in a position to influence decisions of the Association in relation to the acquisition of goods and services from, or to give or sell goods or services to, external organizations or persons in which the employee or a family member also has a financial interest. To protect employees/volunteers/students as well as the Association itself, from allegations of conflict of interest, transactions must be dealt with in an arm's-length basis.

For greater clarify, transactions with the following persons or entities would not quality as being at an arm's length basis:

- a. An employee/volunteer or student.
- b. A family member of the above.

- c. A person in a family-like relationship to the above.
- d. A business, organization, or entity in which the person above, a family member, or a person in a family-like relationship to them has a financial, professional or personal interest.

The Association requires employees/volunteers/students to immediately disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest. The Association reserves the right to cancel any contract (to the degree it is legally able to do so) or may refuse to enter into a contract where and when a real or perceived conflict is discovered that was not disclosed and approved beforehand.

1. The employee/volunteer/student who has the conflict will declare the conflict to the Executive Director or designate immediately upon the discovery of the actual or possible conflict. In the event that the designate has a conflict, they shall declare it to the Executive Director and in the event that the Executive Director has a conflict, they shall declare it to the Board of Directors.
2. The employee/volunteer/student who has the conflict shall, unless otherwise given written approval by the Executive Director or designate, abstain from taking part in meetings, discussions, decisions, or services in relation to the matter that is the subject of the conflict of interest.
3. Employees/volunteer/students are prohibited from accepting substantial gifts, benefits, or favours for their use or enjoyment offered by a person supported, their family, a supplier, a proposed supplier, a purchaser, a proposed purchaser, a donor, a proposed donor or any other agency, institution, or person with whom the employee/volunteer/student is dealing with on behalf of the agency.

Policy: Telecommuting/Working from Home Policy

Approved by the Board of Directors: June 22, 2020

There are times when remote work is a useful and necessary solution. It might be on a short-term basis such as working from home during a snowstorm or for a longer period such as during the COVID-19 pandemic. The Association encourages flexibility in employee work arrangements where it is possible and practical to do so without compromising the efficiency and effectiveness of operations.

Telecommuting is an employee privilege and not a guarantee or an entitlement. All telecommuting arrangements require the approval of the employee's supervisor and may require a work plan and tracking of time. Due to the nature of work, telecommuting cannot be implemented for all positions. Some areas will have greater flexibility to facilitate telecommuting and as such, there will be variation across the Association in ability to adopt this policy.

This policy will help determine what positions are eligible for telecommuting and ensure consistent work practices are followed such that telecommuting employees continue to provide a level of service equal to or better than that provided on-site.

Procedure

Granting of Telecommuting Privileges

1. The granting (as well as the termination) of any telecommuting privileges will be made in the sole and absolute discretion of the Association taking into account the following:
 - a. The current COVID-19 status or the status of any similar epidemic, pandemic or widespread disease or disaster.
 - b. The ongoing operational requirements of the Employer.
 - c. The operational requirements of a particular role.

All requests for telecommuting privileges must be approved by the employee's supervisor and if longer than three days must also be endorsed by the Executive Director.

Conditions under any Telecommuting Arrangements

1. All Employee's operating under this Policy agree to remain bound by the following conditions and for the duration of their telecommuting arrangements:
 - a. All internet connections used to access Association related servers, email and information must be privately owned, password protected and have Wi-Fi connections that are not shared, or publicly accessible.

- b. Employees will perform due diligence to protect the security of the Association's documents and confidentiality while working from home or at an off-site location.
- c. All existing work plan targets and/or responsibilities shall continue and where necessary, roles and responsibilities will be reasonably adapted.
- d. All employees shall also remain available and contactable during ordinary business hours; and will continue regular communication with their supervisor.
- e. Employees will manage personal responsibilities in a way that allows successful completion of job responsibilities.
- f. All other terms and conditions of employment and policies and procedures shall remain in place and their application adapted accordingly.

Health, Safety and Liability

1. Given the private and residential nature of telecommuting work, the Employer will have limited access and/or control over the Employee's place of work. Employees will be responsible to keep a safe and fit for work environment and will identify and remove potential hazards.

Privacy, Confidentiality and Data Security

1. Employees who work under this Policy acknowledge and agree that despite the flexible nature of their work arrangements, they will not have any expectation to privacy in relation to Association-owned electronic devices issued to them for the purposes of telecommuting work arrangements, including but not limited to computers, tablets and phones.

2. Association devices, along with the contents of devices will remain the property of the Association at all times, and could be subject to inspection and / or repossession at any time. The Employee acknowledges that they will not be entitled to retain possession of, or deny access to, any of the Association issued equipment. Conduct of this nature will constitute a breach of this Policy and may result in disciplinary action, termination for cause, and police intervention in circumstances that involve theft of Employer property.

3. Employees are also required to ensure that no other family member, relative, employee or third party has access to, or uses their Employer issued equipment and that all computers, tablets and phones are password protected and placed into a locked state whenever the Employee leaves their respective work area.

4. Employees are also obliged to ensure that all work product and information is backed up daily (if such facilities exist), in accordance with the Employer's standard Information and Technology practices.

5. In the event of any data security breach or accidental access by any family member or third party, the Employee will immediately contain the breach and inform a Manager or the Executive Director.

6. If the employee experiences technical issues with the device, they will notify the Association's approved contractor for assistance.

7. Employees will not use third-party technicians for maintenance or repair of Association owned devices or software unless approved.

Duration, Amendment and Revocation

1. Any telecommuting work arrangements are a privilege and the Association reserves its right to amend or withdraw such privileges at any time it deems appropriate.

2. In the event of termination of employment, the employee agrees that the Association may immediately revoke access to agency issued accounts and equipment, without advanced notice, and that all information contained will constitute property owned by the Association. The Employee also agrees that in the event of termination of employment and within three (3) calendar days, to return and make available all agency issued equipment. In such cases, no copies, drafts or backups of any form may be retained by the employee. These obligations will similarly apply in the event that the Employee is suspended, pending an investigation, etc.

General

1. Given the nature of telecommuting work and the potential tax implications thereof, the Association will not involve itself with the tax affairs of any employee, nor will it make any misrepresentations to the Canada Revenue Agency on behalf of any employee.

2. This Policy will be reviewed from time to time. In the event of any changes, the employee will be informed and will be required to apprise themselves of any additional obligations and amendments.

Policy: Disconnecting from Work

Approved by the Board of Directors: Aug 3 2022

The Association provides a wide variety of essential services and support to people with developmental disabilities and their families on a 24-7 basis. The provision of these services works to promote and facilitate community inclusion, meaningful participation and full citizenship for the people supported.

The Association values the contribution of all employees, encourages and supports them in protecting their health and well-being. Regardless of the nature of an employee's working arrangement, location or role, taking appropriate time to disconnect from work is vital for wellbeing and is essential for maintaining work-life balance.

In accordance with the Working for Workers Act, S.O. 2021, c. 35 – Bill 27, the Association encourages all employees to take time to disconnect from work when it is appropriate to do so.

Procedure

Hours of Work:

Based on the continuous nature of the Association's operations, regular hours of work vary from one employee to the next. Further, given the unpredictable nature of the agency's business, work outside of established working hours for any person may be required from time to time.

All employees are encouraged to know and conduct their assigned work within their established work hours, subject to ensuring that they meet their responsibilities and the needs of people supported by the Association are not neglected.

Aside from such times as work may be required outside of an employee's working hours (e.g. to deal with urgent matters that cannot wait until an employee's regular hours of work, where an employee is on-call, etc.), the Association encourages employees who are off duty to disconnect from work.

Communications

Given that, employees across the organization have differing hours of work it is not possible to ensure that all communications are only sent during employee's on-duty hours. All employees are expected to use their best judgement when determining whether to send a communication during a recipient's off hours. Similarly, all employees are expected to use their best judgement when determining whether to respond to a communication received during their off hours and also set reasonable expectations for response time.

Nonetheless, employees continue to be expected to review and respond to communications from their employer and to participate in employer processes such as scheduling, investigations, absence management, performance management and other types of contact, communications and meetings that occur outside of regular working hours, as may be reasonably expected for the management of their employment. The Association will communicate expected response times for various types of communications.

Policy # HR 38

Policy: Diversity and Non-Discrimination

Approved by the Board of Directors: Sept 25 2023

CLSMA believes in the inherent worth of all individuals and their right to be treated with dignity and respect. CLSMA recognizes that individuals and groups can be unfairly discriminated against and acknowledges its responsibility to eliminate discrimination, both direct and indirect, and any form of discrimination that is unlawful.

The organization is committed to full equality and in upholding the spirit and letter of relevant legislation in Canada, and the Province of Ontario in creating and maintaining an environment, where all people are valued for the diversity they bring. All policies, procedures and practices shall be free of deliberate or unintentional (systemic) barriers, so that all staff and those served by the Association receive fair and equitable treatment.

There shall be no differential treatment of individuals, based on, age, sex, colour, race, ancestry, citizenship, place of origin, ethnic origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, receipt of public assistance, record of offences, sex including pregnancy, and sexual orientation. Record of Offences will be reviewed within the context of duties, and in accordance with the Criminal Reference Check policy established by CLSMA.

CLSMA seeks to operate within a framework of fairness, openness, integrity, and accountability and to extend its commitment to equality of opportunity via its expectations of those who provide services for CLSMA.

The Association aims to integrate equality of opportunity into all its employment activities. We seek to recruit and retain a workforce that is diverse and representative of the community and those with whom the organization works or provides a service to.

CLSMA will be responsible for the reasonable accommodation of the differences and needs of staff and individuals supported by the Association, so that each person has the opportunity to contribute to their full potential. It is understood that equality does not necessarily mean the "same" and there may be instances where the response to individuals may need to be different. Management will strive to manage, encourage, and support diversity, while remaining cognizant of the need for consistency and fairness.

The responsibility for upholding these principles rests equally with all staff and of CLSMA.

Services

Community Living St. Marys and Area provides three forms of service - Planning and Facilitation Services, Support Services and Administration Services. All are within the confines of the vision, mission and principles of the organization.

People using services of the Association and those interested in using services are matched with a planning facilitator who will help them develop a personal plan. The person usually invites family and friends to participate in making a good life plan. Information from the plan is used in the design of support services.

The support is provided directly by the Association with teams of employees working with one or more people. Support is directed co-jointly by the person using services and by the Association. This direction is outlined in the personal support agreement.

Support is also provided to assist people in maintaining and monitoring purchase of service contracts they have with Community Living St. Marys and Area.

Most often people wish to purchase administrative services from the Association. These may include payroll, paying bills, auditing government monies, budgeting, supervising and monitoring situations.

Community Living St. Marys and Area firmly believes that the person receiving or purchasing the support is in charge. Planning and support services are then voluntary actions. The person receiving the assistance does so freely and is able to change the service request or withdraw. The Association has a responsibility, through its principles, to try, within its resources, to meet the person's requests.

Where investigation by authorities does not lead to conviction of a criminal offence the agency reserves the right to subsequent investigation and disciplinary actions may follow.

5. If the Executive Director is suspected of abuse, the police will be notified if the abuse may constitute a criminal nature. If not, the President of the board will be notified and the board or designate will complete an internal investigation.

Privacy and Confidentiality

Policy # S 16

Policy: Guidelines for the Use of Alternative Support

Approved by the Board of Directors: Sept 28, 2020

Revised Aug 2022

The Association recognizes the benefit of people supported having choice in how their service is designed. Tailoring service to their needs may include alternative support such as Share Your Home, supportive neighbours and supportive roommates. The Association will operate alternative supports in accordance with all legislative requirements to provide a safe environment that encourages natural relationships and broadens community connections and participation. It is the role of the Association to monitor and evaluate the quality of service provided in each situation.

Alternative support can apply to full-time or part-time living situations or even as a respite option for adults or children living in their family home. It may also apply to providing permanent or temporary foster care to children and youth funded by the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services through the local Children's Aid Society.

Guiding Principles

1. Community Living St. Marys has a set of policies that inform all service through the agency including alternative community supports. This includes a set of principle statements that guide the work.
2. These procedures also meet any requirements under the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services including the Quality Assurance Measures Regulation and the Child, Youth and Family Services Act.
3. CLSMA wants people supported by this Association to have quality support that promote the safety and well-being of everyone involved.
4. CLSMA will work in partnership with other community organizations such as the local Children's Aid Society, The Avon Maitland School Board and Huron Perth Catholic District School Board.
5. CLSMA believes that children and youth are best served when they are supported to remain in their home community and school environments and have planning for a seamless transition to adult services

Procedure

Eligibility

1. Family members of the person supported generally cannot become host families or supportive neighbours for their own relative.
2. Employees of CLSMA are not eligible to provide alternative support unless there is a unique situation that is approved by the Executive Director.
3. Provision of service from CLSMA is dependent on funding. Access to funding for support through the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services must go through Developmental Services Ontario.
4. CLSMA places a priority on community members who make a request for service. Others living outside of the service area may apply for consideration.

Requirements for ALL Alternative Support Providers

1. Police record check including vulnerable sector screening for every adult living in the home dated within the last six months. According to the Association's policies, the police record check will be completed again every five years or as requested due to a concern. A record check that is part of initial screening should be paid for by the applicant.
2. Two personal references for the primary care provider.
3. A driver's abstract and proof of personal vehicle insurance (one million dollars liability) will be requested as well as a copy of the provider's driver's license will be kept on file. The Association has the right at any time to request an updated abstract.
4. A copy of household insurance for situations where a person is living in someone's home either on a part-time or full-time basis.
5. Current First-Aid/CPR for the primary care provider.
6. Annual abuse prevention training along with signed oath of confidentiality.
7. Training on Association policies including rights of people supported, serious occurrence reporting and complaint process.
8. Statement of physical and emotional health signed by a doctor.
9. All alternative support providers will review and have a copy of these guidelines.

Screening for Alternative Support Providers

Any adult or family interested in becoming a host family, supportive neighbour or roommate must complete an application and submit it to the Coordinator of Home

Share. Approval is based on the applicant meeting all requirements, successful screening and the person supported/family's agreement. The situation must have final approval from the executive director or designate.

To ensure the safety and well-being of the person supported, applicants for any alternative support must undergo a rigorous screening process to determine their suitability, skills and capacity to provide optimal support according to the specific needs of the person. The screening process will look different depending on the amount of direct time spent with the supported person.

Screening for Share Your Home (full-time/part-time/respice)

When someone is sharing a home with an adult/family the following will be in place;

1. An assessment of Matching and Capability to provide care.

Key considerations are:

- a. A willingness and motivation to accept the person as part of the family and a willingness to foster and respect the person's independence, dignity, self-determination and community participation.
- b. Physically, mentally, emotionally and socially being able to provide quality care consistent with the demands and stress that may be experienced as a caregiver.
- c. The family has a secure financial status with adequate income to provide for the needs of the household.
- d. Matching that complements the person's goals, interests, cultural practices, religious background, physical needs, proximity to natural family members and any other determining factors.

2. Interviews with Family Members

The interview process provides the Association with information to assess the suitability of the prospective host family. Documentation will be kept to inform the approval process. Topics include:

- a. Motivation to share life with someone.
- b. Nature and quality of the family's relationships.
- c. Soft skills such as patience, adaptability, understanding, warmth, open-mindedness, acceptance, maturity, integrity, cooperativeness and flexibility.
- d. Family history, attributes, lifestyle, substance use, outside interests, hobbies and philosophy of support.
- e. Attitude regarding the involvement of the person's natural family and other relationships.
- f. Experience, education and understanding of people with an intellectual disability.
- g. Appropriateness of the match with the person supported.

The interview will serve as an opportunity to provide information to the host family regarding Share Your Home structure, roles, expectations and the range of supports and services provided by the Association.

The host family must demonstrate their availability and willingness to participate in orientation, ongoing training and monitoring by the agency as outlined in the support plan and in the Agency's policies and procedures.

3. Environmental Assessment

As part of completing the initial and then annual house and fire risk assessment, an on-site assessment of the prospective home ensures a healthy and safe environment.

Examples of features assessed include:

- a. Entrances and exits.
- b. Medication storage.
- c. Clean, safe water quality and temperature.
- d. Hazards.
- e. Air quality and temperature.
- f. Fire safety including fire extinguishers, carbon monoxide, smoke detectors and properly maintained dryer vents and lint traps. In addition, fire evacuation plans.
- g. Firearms and weapons.
- h. Pets.
- i. Vehicles.
- j. Swimming pools, ponds and proximity to bodies of water.
- k. Private bedroom with a window that opens.
- l. Food storage.
- m. Moisture/water problems.
- n. Air conditioning and heating systems.
- o. Woodstoves, chimneys and fireplaces including annual WET inspections.
- p. Compliance with applicable provincial, municipal and zoning by-laws.

4. Placement Cap

The Ministry requires that Share Your Home situations will not have more than two children and/or adult placements by an agency funded by the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services.

5. Approval by the Person Supported

The person supported and family if appropriate should be involved as possible in the screening process. At a minimum, they will meet the family, have visits and learn everything they need to know about the adult/family in order to make an informed choice about the living situation. The person will have final say on whether there is a good fit for them.

6. Confidentiality Requirements

CLSMA has policies and procedures dealing with privacy and confidentiality regulations. Providers sign an oath of confidentiality.

7. Caregiver Respite

Planned and emergency respite options for full-time share your home situations are important to sustaining healthy relationships and to provide security to the person supported. The agency will support the development of a respite plan that is appropriate for the person and meets all screening requirements. This could be a part-time provider, person's own family etc. This respite is part of a back-up plan that can be implemented if a full-time provider becomes sick or has an emergency that affects the supported person.

Screening for Supportive Neighbours

The intensity of screening for supportive neighbours will vary depending on the type of connection with the supported person and their needs. Some supportive neighbours spend time directly with the person through shared meals or activities and this requires more intense screening. Other supportive neighbours who provide overnight monitoring from outside of the person's home may require reduced screening.

In some cases, CLSMA is involved in establishing tenant relationships with the landlord. This is different in every case. Sometimes the landlord is a parent or family member or could be a third party or even William Hanly Incorporated.

Training

The Association will provide an initial orientation to the person's needs in all alternative support arrangements. The intensity and scope of the orientation will depend on the level and type of support that will be provided.

Training that is part of the requirements outlined earlier in procedure is required at the beginning of the agreement and may need to be ongoing such as annual abuse prevention training.

Agreements

An initial and then annual agreement will be completed for each alternative support arrangement. All agreements are signed. The agreements will include information on:

- a. Support expectations.
- b. Training and requirements to be met.
- c. Monitoring arrangements.
- d. Responsibility to report issues or concerns.
- e. Outlines roles and responsibilities for providing a safe living environment, fostering independence, community participation, proper healthcare and good nutrition.
- f. Responsibility for financial support and maintaining good records.
- g. Problem resolution and dealing with conflicts.
- h. Dealing with conflicts of interest.
- i. Changing or ending the situation.
- j. Outlines remuneration/compensation.

Remuneration/Compensation

1. If a per diem rate is being used such as for shared living arrangements, the rate will be determined based on all of the factors involved including the person's unique support needs, available support budget and any other considerations. A per diem should be based on a 24-hour period that includes an overnight.

2. Invoices should not be submitted ahead of hours worked or per diem nights worked. This is a best practice and avoids confusion if the visit is cancelled at the last minute.

3. Expenses such as transportation must be approved and or negotiated in the agreement.

Monitoring and Support

The Association will provide ongoing monitoring and support to ensure the safety and well-being of the person supported.

In Share Your Home situations, both part-time and full-time, there will be regular contact and visits (at least monthly) and at least one unscheduled/unannounced visit per year/within a 12-month period. The Association will also ensure there is one meeting with the person supported on a quarterly basis. The Community Resource Coordinator will monitor share your home situations where the person living in them is an adult. The Youth Facilitator will monitor share your home situations where the person living there is a child. Visits will be documented and will always include a physical check of the residence and property for safety and security.

For supportive neighbours, the Community Resource Coordinator will check in at minimum every six months regarding agreement concerns. More regular and ongoing support for schedules or issues regarding the person supported will be dealt with by the team leader or designate.

Reassessment of Situations

The Association will reassess alternative support arrangements anytime there is a significant change in circumstance and this will be documented. Examples might include a family member becoming ill or the primary person being unable to provide care. If a new person moves into the home, requirements such as a vulnerable sector check must be completed for that person.

When an evaluation of an alternative situation is required, it would involve some or all of the following things:

- a. Notifying family and friends and involving them in discussions and decision-making.
- b. Spending additional time with the person supported to understand their wishes.
- c. Meeting with the provider to discuss concerns or changes that may be needed. This will be documented in a letter and signed off by the provider.
- d. Additional support, training or monitoring would be provided as needed.
- e. In cases where there is a health and safety concern, emergency respite would be coordinated and the Executive Director would be notified.

Documentation

1. Information regarding the supported person's health including medical appointments, injuries or monitoring health needs will be documented and signed by the provider.

2. Administration of medication for children will follow the CLSMA policy and procedures.

3. The Association will keep detailed files for each person supported.
4. If the provider assists the adult supported person with their personal finances then financial records will be kept including bank statements and budgets and reviewed during monthly visits.
5. Alternative Support providers will keep a daily journal for the person that contains any relevant information. It will be reviewed during visits by the agency.

Unique guidelines for Children and Youth

If the person has a developmental disability/dual diagnosis and is a child/youth under the age of 18 the following applies:

1. The Youth Facilitator will be the first point of contact for the agency.
2. The Youth Facilitator will work with the family, guardian, and/or CAS contact and involved organizations to create a future vision and immediate support plan tailored to the specific child/youth. The plan will ensure continuity of care (support services only when necessary, i.e., 1 in 3 weeks) for the child/youth.
3. The Youth Facilitator will ensure the vision is in line with CLSMA's Vision, Mission and Principles and the immediate goal is for the child/youth to remain in CLSMA's designated service area. If the vision is not a match with CLSMA, the Youth Facilitator will aid in making connections with other possible agencies.
4. CLSMA is committed to families living in St. Marys and surrounding area. Recognizing existing children/youth services and programs that are available in the area, CLSMA will provide services to child/youth with a focus on alternative, community support options first.
5. The Youth Facilitator will work with the family/guardian and/or CAS to clearly outline how parents will interact with the child/youth.
6. A support plan is designed for the child/youth and details how they will be encouraged to participate in community activities and who will support these activities. The support plan will also include the approach to take when the child's behaviour needs to change.
7. CLSMA policy and procedure including these guidelines will be made available to alternative support providers for children/youth.
8. CLSMA will be responsive to questions, concerns that come forward from outside community organizations and will respond within 2 business days.
9. Provide crisis planning and support connection to clinical support

Role and Responsibilities of Person Supported/Natural Family

1. Meet with the Coordinator of Alternative Support or Youth Facilitator to speak about their support.
2. Communicate issues and concerns to the provider and or the agency.
3. Provide direction on the support needed to meet their needs.

9. Annual training that includes the person's rights.

Policy: Providing Support with Controlled Acts

Approved by the Board of Directors: August 3, 2016
Revised: August 2017, July 2022, Sept 2023

Ministry requirement

The Association will promote the safety and well-being of people using service and employees around the administration of a controlled act.

Procedure

1. Definitions and guidelines for controlled acts are set out in the Regulated Health Professional Act, 1991 (RHPA). Controlled acts are tasks and procedures that are considered to be potentially harmful if performed by an unqualified person.
2. Under the act, unregulated care providers can perform certain controlled acts when providing first aid or temporary assistance in an emergency and when assisting a person with their routine activities of daily living. Activities of daily living are defined as: procedures that involve established and predictable need, response and outcome.
3. The procedures that can be delegated as part of daily living are:
 - a. Performing procedure below the dermis or mucous membrane.
 - b. Administering a substance by injection or inhalation.
 - c. Putting an instrument, hand or finger into a body orifice or artificial opening into the body.
4. The Association will provide training from an outside regulated health care provider for employees who require it using a train-the-trainer model. The health care provider who teaches the controlled act must determine if/when the employee is competent to perform the particular procedure before delegation. Employees will sign off on the appropriate form. A detailed procedure specific to the person will be attached to their support plan as a reference.
5. In some cases, the outside regulated health care provider may use a 'train the trainer' model. This will be clearly outlined in the person's support plan detailing what the controlled act is, who the health care provider has deemed capable and competent to provide training to others, as well as a detailed procedure. The outside regulated health care provider will still monitor the training process closely and will be available to answer any questions and provide clarification as needed.
6. The Association will work with the outside regulated health care provider to ensure there is an ongoing process for monitoring competence. This monitoring includes a review of the timelines for training.

Policy: Medications; Administration and Self-Administration

Approved by the Board of Directors: Aug 19, 2019

Best practices will be employed by Community Living St. Marys and Area staff to effectively support people with medication administration. Self-administration of medications by people supported will be facilitated by ongoing assessment, documentation and training of the person supported and of the employees assisting.

The Association must support employees in meeting their obligations through orientation, monitoring and ongoing training.

Procedure

Administration of Medications

The Association and employees are accountable to ensure medication and treatment procedures are followed. Administration of Medication procedures are followed when it is understood that the agency and its employees are responsible for the medication, its care and administration. These procedures are to ensure that the correct person is given the correct medication and dose at the correct route and documenting accordingly.

1. The person administering medication must be eighteen years of age or older. Employees are responsible for the manner in which medication and treatments are administered and are accountable to the person involved and their family member(s) or designate, the person's physician and the organization.
2. The person administering must be first oriented to medication procedures by the supervisor or trained designate prior to administering medications. They must complete a Medication Orientation Checklist BEFORE they can independently administer any medications and treatments.
3. Medication must be in an original container with original pharmacy label. A person's pharmacy will pre-pour medications into a blister pack. When blister pack arrives, an employee will check the meds and initial 'person who checks' on the MAR sheet. Any mistakes should be taken back to pharmacy to be fixed.
4. Follow any special instructions on the label or Drug Information sheet, such as "keep refrigerated." Administer according to medication type recommendations, as per attached document, Medication Administration Methods: Recommendations.

5. Medication must always be locked and stored in a safe area where it will not be exposed to extreme conditions of heat, cold or moisture etc. Medications will be locked in order to ensure everyone's safety. All narcotic medications will be double locked.

6. Do not give medications if the person is showing signs of toxicity, vomiting, very sedated or unconscious, or showing signs of allergic reactions.

7. Check expiry dates of medications. Do not give if discoloured, chalking or unusual odour. Medications must be disposed according to Policy S 24.

8. Always wash your hands. Avoid handling medications.

9. Do not crush or take apart capsules unless the doctor gives the okay. Dispose as per procedure. Refer to Policy S 24.

10. Follow the Six Rights of Administering Medications:

#1 Right Person

- Read the name on the blister pack, and Medication Administration Record (MAR) sheet.
- Talk to the person and use their name.
- Give medication to one person at a time.

#2 Right Drug

- Read the blister pack and the MAR sheet.
- Research the drug actions, side effects and reason for giving.
- Do three checks when pouring.
- Know the generic and trade name for the medication.

3 Right Dose

- Check the blister pack and the MAR sheet.
- Look at the dose on the label.
- Consider the dose amount and how you will formulate that prescription.
- Measure accurately; know abbreviations, symbols and equivalents.
- Make sure the person takes all the medication.

#4 Right Time

- Read the MAR sheet and medication bottle.
- Give the medication at the time ordered, leeway of 30 – 60 minutes.
- For blood levels give at stated intervals, such as four to eight hours.
- Know abbreviations for times – a.c., p.c., od, b.i.d., etc.

#5 Right Method

- Read doctor's order, MAR sheet and blister pack.
- Give orally if no method is stated or indicated. Ask if unsure.
- Give as indicated – with milk, on an empty stomach, with applesauce, etc.
- Think and keep your mind on your work.
- Pour pill into lid of container first. Pour liquid directly into measured cup or spoon.

#6 Right Documentation

- Every medication must be recorded on person's file – doctor's order, MAR sheet, along with dose, time, route.
- The person checking the blister pack and giving medications must record after doing so.
- Any medication not administered must be recorded on MAR sheet, noted in log/communication books (indicating the reason).

Failure to do any of these is a medication error. Remember people have the RIGHT TO REFUSE. Document this if it occurs. This is not a medication error. Note when a medication is withheld using the proper code.

11. Doctors' orders are required for all medications, including PRN medications. No medication or treatment can be given without a doctor's signature.

12. Non-prescription medications and treatments require a Doctor's Standing Order.

13. The Medication Administration Record (MAR) are used for one-month period of times. Outdated MAR sheets are kept as part of the person's Medication History and placed in the person's binder under medical section or filed away.

14. Never administer a medication that you have not personally poured.

Contents of the Med Book

- Medication Administration Record (MAR)
- Physician's Orders
- Medication & Treatment Notes
- Medical/Consultation Appointment
- Related forms
- Information printouts of the person's meds (usually provided by pharmacy)

16. Non-compliance with medication procedures are subject to discipline up to and including dismissal from Community Living St. Marys and Area.

Self-Administration of Medications

1. It is important for people who can safely do so, to administer their own medication or to self-administer with assistance. The Association will be part of determining the safeguards that need to be in place, if any, for each person to self-administer their medication and the specific details will be outlined in the person's Support Plan.

2. Medication Self-Administration Plan

A plan may include but is not limited to the following steps:

- a. The person's medicine is stored with other medications. The person self-administers and a support worker records. Or

- b. The person's medicine is stored with other medications. The person self-administers and signs the medication sheet. A support worker performs documented spot checks and initials medication sheet. Or,
- c. A pharmacy blister packs medications and the person self-administers. The support worker will monitor and document any concerns.
- d. When new medications are prescribed, the self-administration procedure will be reviewed and amended as necessary.

Policy Title: Right Approach and Use of Intrusive Supports Policy Number: S 29	Section: Services
Original Date: May 28, 2012 Last Revision Date(s): Jan 20, 2025	Approved by: Board Next Review Date: Jan 2027

Purpose: People who use our services sometimes communicate in unique ways and it is imperative for us to understand and respond in a respectful and effective manner. The agency seeks to maintain the safety of all people and promote the use of positive intervention strategies that lead to more community participation and independence.

Policy: CLSMA will always utilize positive support strategies and when intrusive interventions are needed to keep people safe, the least intrusive interventions will be used first. This includes the use of the Right Approach in Support Plans and/or Behaviour Support Plans as required in Ontario Regulation 299/10 Quality Assurance Measures (QAM).

Procedure:

Right Approach:

Clear strategies are developed with the person and family/friends to support a person's unique ways of communicating that can sometimes be difficult. Strategies are positive, respectful and look at building the person's skills. They reflect the organization's values and principles as well as policies and procedures and will be included in the person's Support Plan. The Right Approach will include an assessment of risk for the person and safeguards that are put in place. Examples of what might be included are refusal of support or choices that put the person at risk including eviction or social isolation.

Behaviour Support Plans:

1. A behaviour support plan is required for any person supported that has challenging behaviour. QAM defines "challenging behaviour" as "aggressive or injurious to self or to others or that causes property damage or both and that limits the ability of the person with a developmental disability to participate in daily life activities and in the community or to learn new skills or that is any combination of them."
2. The behaviour support plan will be in addition to the person's individual support plan.
3. The behaviour support plan must address the challenging behaviour, consider risks and benefits of strategies, set out the least intrusive approach and be monitored for effectiveness.
4. Any prescribed medication recommended to be used to address a person's challenging behaviour will have a protocol for its use based on the prescribing clinician's advice that will be an attachment to the behaviour support plan. The medication and its use will be reviewed by the prescribing physician and is included and documented in the regular review of the person's behaviour support plan.

5. The behaviour support plan will be developed with the involvement of the person supported and family or others acting on their behalf. The person supported and or their family or others acting on their behalf will be asked to provide consent for the plan and strategies. The plan will also include information on when and how the family is updated and notified of incidents.

6. The behaviour support plan will be reviewed at least twice in each 12-month period and this review will be documented.

7. All staff and volunteers supporting the person will be trained on the strategies included in the behaviour support plan before they start working and on an ongoing basis. Training records will be kept.

8. All employees of the Association are required to be trained in CPI – Nonviolent Crisis Intervention every 2 years according to #HR 13 Orientation and Training.

9. Supervisors will monitor the use of strategies as outlined in the behaviour support plan and provide feedback to workers as part of overall performance management.

10. A behaviour support plan that includes intrusive behaviour intervention strategies such as physical restraint or prescribed medication to assist the person in calming themselves must be approved by a clinician such as a psychologist, physician, behaviour analyst or psychiatrist.

Intrusive Behaviour Intervention:

Intrusive procedures or actions are only used when the person supported is at risk of harming themselves or others or causing property damage. Examples of intrusive actions are physical restraint, or prescribed medication to assist the person in calming themselves with a clearly defined protocol developed by a physician as to when to administer the medication and how it is to be monitored and reviewed.

1. In a crisis situation where less intrusive interventions have not worked; physical restraint may be necessary to keep the person and others safe. The restraint must use the least amount of force that is necessary to restrict the person's ability to move freely and the person should be monitored at all times. Notification to the designated contact person (family, Substitute Decision Maker) of the use of a physical restraint during a crisis situation will occur upon obtaining consent from the person supported as they are able or as identified in the behaviour support plan. This notification will be documented in the incident report.

2. All incidents involving physical restraint will be documented fully.

3. Notification to the designated contact person (Family, Substitute Decision Maker) of the use of intrusive supports will occur upon obtaining consent from the person supported as they are able or as identified in the behavior support plan. This notification will also be documented in the incident report.

4. A debriefing process will be conducted as soon as possible among all staff involved any other witnesses when an intrusive procedure has been used. There will also be a debriefing with the person supported when appropriate and based on their needs. All debriefings will be documented.

5. A serious occurrence report will be filed if necessary based on Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services requirements and policy #S 13 – Serious Occurrences.

6. The agency will have access to a third-party committee that will review behaviour support plans that include intrusive measures and provide advice on their compliance to best practice and Ministry requirements. Any feedback or recommendations from the committee will be documented and shared with the clinician that oversees the behaviour support plan.

7. The third-party committee will always include a clinician with relevant experience and the Executive Director and other members will be invited in as appropriate.

8. Meetings will be convened by the Executive Director as needed.

Secure Isolation/Confinement Time-out

1. When it is identified as part of an individualized behavior support plan, confinement time out must be developed in consultation with appropriate professionals. The formalized behavior support plan must include strategies and interventions that minimize the use of confinement time out. Those strategies include:

- Verbal interaction and de-escalation techniques
- Redirection
- Limit setting
- Prescribed medication

2. The physical space used for secure isolation/confinement time-out will meet the Site Inspection requirements of The Quality Assurance Measures Indicator List.

3. The formalized behavior strategy must identify objective criteria to determine the need for confinement time out. The behavior support plan will include the duration of time, extension periods and maximum time in isolation.

4. Once confinement time out has been implemented, the individual must be continuously monitored for the following purposes;

- Maintain his/her health, safety and well-being.
- Monitor and record behavioural changes in accordance with the behavior support plan.
- Data collection and documentation as required by the behavior support plan and clinician follow-up.
- Ensure compliance with policies, procedures and regulations.

5. The Behaviour Support Plan will clearly outline the stages of interval monitoring and required timing for regular record keeping.

6. Any incident involving the use of confinement time out must be documented using the internal Incident Report form and requires notification of the immediate supervisor if available or if unavailable, the emergency on call system.
7. Notification to the designated contact person (Family, Substitute Decision Maker) of the use of intrusive supports will occur upon obtaining consent from the person supported as they are able or as identified in the behavior support plan. This notification will also be documented in the incident report.
8. The duration of time that a person may spend in a secure isolation/confinement time out, any extension periods, and the total maximum amount of time that a person may spend in confinement time out, will be outlined in the behavior support plan and documented for the clinician to follow-up.

Sept 28 2020, Mar 27 2023

Ministry requirement

Revised: August 3, 2016, Sept 2020, Mar 2023

The Association will have an emergency preparedness plan that will outline actions required in the event of a fire, major accident, catastrophe or any other occurrence of a serious nature, including a person using services becoming lost. The disaster plan will include a Continuity of Operation plan in the event of service disruption. The Association has a separate Pandemic Plan to deal with preparing for and managing a pandemic crisis.

Procedure

1. The Association's Emergency Preparedness Plan will be reviewed annually by senior management. The Joint Health and Safety Committee will be consulted as needed.
2. Staff will be trained in the emergency preparedness response. New employees will read the policy as part of their orientation and then review during the annual training.
3. Each person supported will have individualized information regarding emergency preparedness available in their support plan.

Community Living St. Marys and Area Emergency Preparedness Plan

1. Emergency Response

Should include the following key elements for any type of crisis involving people supported, employees and or volunteers:

- a. Leadership – taking responsible steps to attend to your role in responding.
- b. Evacuation as appropriate to remove yourself and others from harm's way. In the case of immediate, impending danger, evacuate first and then make emergency contacts. Remember that even small fires require evacuation.
- c. Calling for Emergency Response #911 from outside of the home or situation, and ready to share information about address, circumstances of emergency and help needed.
- d. Communication – staying calm while alerting others to the crisis. The Association has an emergency on-call phone number that would be the first contact within the agency (519) 949-1404. Each supported person would have his or her own personal emergency contact list as outlined in his or her support plan.

- e. Provide first aid and reassurance as needed to maintain comfort and calm. Every person supported by the Association has a first aid kit in their home and the location is noted in their support plan. In the same location is a list of meds and pertinent medical history (allergies, medical conditions, accommodations) that should go with the person being evacuated or taken to the hospital.

2. Fire Emergency

- a. It is important to be proactive and check regularly for fire hazards. Test smoke alarms monthly and check fire extinguishers for expiry dates or any requirements for servicing.
- b. Each person supported will have access to fire safety information and training.
- c. A fire and home evacuation plan will be included in each person's support plan as well as details on practicing the plan such as fire drills.

3. Missing Persons

If a supported person has a higher risk of going missing or any other safety concern a specific plan to help prevent this from happening will be included in their support plan as well as an individualized response if it happens. This includes summer support plans for children using summer support.

In general, if a person goes missing it is important to consider the following:

- a. Consider the history and individual nature of the situation including any health concerns.
- b. Based on the level of independence of the person, the police are to be notified.
- c. Contact local hospitals.
- d. Once the missing person has been found, complete an incident report including recommendations for the future and any follow-up needed.
- e. The manager in consultation with the team leader will determine when a serious occurrence report will be filed with the Ministry of Community and Social Services in accordance with guidelines.

4. Major Disaster Events

All people supported by the Association have a first aid kit in their home and are encouraged and supported to keep an emergency survival kit. The location of these are outlined in the person's support plan. Also outlined in the support plan are any other considerations including health or specialized support needs and a plan for meeting those needs. One example of this might be considering unique health needs that would make going to an evacuation centre very difficult.

In the event of a major disaster event such as a tornado, flood, extended power outage etc. Community Living St. Marys would follow the instructions in the community Emergency Response Plan for both St. Marys and Stratford. A very brief summary of the two plans are written below. 5. Emergency Survival Kit

The Perth Health Unit recommends that every citizen prepare in case of an emergency. They suggest that you have an emergency survival kit that should have everything you and your family would need to be safe and take care of yourselves for at least three days immediately following an emergency.

The following list is broken down into the essentials, items you may need to meet your family's unique needs, and items to have ready in case you have to leave your home.

WHAT TO PUT IN YOUR SURVIVAL KIT

Essentials

- Food (non-perishable and easy-to-prepare items, enough for 3 days) and a manual can opener
- Bottled water (4 litres per person for each day)
- Medication(s)
- Flashlight
- Radio (crank or battery-run)
- Extra batteries
- First-aid kit
- Candles and matches/lighter
- Hand sanitizer or moist towelettes
- Important papers (identification, contact lists, copies of prescriptions, etc.)

- Extra car keys and cash
- Whistle (to attract attention, if needed)
- Zip-lock bag (to keep things dry)
- Garbage bags

Special Considerations

- a. Items for babies and small children—diapers, formula, bottles, baby food, comfort items.
- b. Prescription medication.
- c. Medical supplies and equipment.
- d. Pet food and supplies.
- e. Any other items specific to your family's needs.

Extra Supplies for Evacuation

- a. Clothes, shoes.
- b. Sleeping bags or blankets.
- c. Personal items (soap, toothpaste, shampoo, comb, other toiletries).
- d. Playing cards, travel games, other activities for children.

OTHER TIPS

1. Pack the contents of your kit in an easy-to-carry bag(s) or a case on wheels.
2. Store your kit in a place that is easy to reach, and ensure that everyone in your family knows where it is.
3. Your kit does not have to be built overnight. Spread your shopping over a few weeks. Purchase a few items every time you go to the store.
4. Your water supply should be able to cover what you would drink as well as what you might need for food preparation, hygiene and dishwashing.
5. Check and refresh your kit twice a year—when the clocks shift to/from daylight savings time is a good time. Check all expiry dates and replace food and water with a fresh supply. Check batteries and replace as needed.
6. Keep your cell phone or mobile device fully charged.

The Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services has resources on how to build your own emergency kit for your home and a tool for creating a personal emergency preparedness plan.

<http://www.emergencymanagementontario.ca/english/beprepared/beprepared.html>

The government of Canada also has resources available at <http://www.getprepared.gc.ca/index-eng.aspx>

b. Response:

- i. The Executive Director or delegate is responsible for implementing the Continuity of Operation Plan during a location specific or agency wide emergency.
- ii. The Executive Director or delegate will work with external contacts and senior management team to develop a specific response plan for the situation. The plan will include identification of essential service and CLSMA staff will be redeployed based on the need.
- iii. The Executive Director or delegate will lead all communication both internal to people supported, families and employees as well as external contacts including the media.
- iv. Serious Occurrence reporting to the Ministry will happen as required.
- v. If evacuation is required for people supported, alternate temporary living situations or emergency shelters will be accessed.

Work Refusal

If a staff person wished to exercise their right to refuse work they feel is unsafe, CLSMA will adhere to HS10 Work Refusal Protocol unless directed otherwise by appropriate Health and other officials.

In Case of Known or Presumed Exposure

Employees are expected to self-isolate and follow other protocols in accordance with CLSMA and Public Health guidance.

Supporting New People from the Community

During a pandemic, requests for supporting new people will still be considered however will be reviewed individually to determine the risks involved. Decisions will be made based on which phase of the pandemic the request is made in, the amount and type of support needed, staffing availability and the person and family's situation. Steps to move ahead with planning will be based on current guidelines from MCCSS and Huron Perth Public Health.

Policy #HS 9

Policy: Severe Weather

Approved by the Board of Directors: November 24, 2008

All employees, volunteers and people who use our services must be aware that severe weather conditions sometimes happen in our geographical area. In such conditions, traveling to and from work can become hazardous for employees who do not reside near the workplace. The Association recognizes the threat to health and safety posed by severe weather conditions and will reasonably consider any requests for adjustment to the work schedule so long as the support services can be maintained. Accordingly, some work shifts may have to be lengthened or shortened during such severe weather conditions to compensate for employee shortages.

Procedure

1. During severe weather conditions, an employee who chooses not to attend work due to genuine fear of personal safety in their travel to the workplace, or who is unable to attend work because of road closures, is required to exercise best efforts to inform their supervisor, person being supported or family member, (whoever is most significant) prior to the beginning of the shift.
2. If an employee requests to leave the workplace early due to expected severe weather conditions, the request will be dealt with by the supervisor on a case to case basis, taking into consideration factors such as the well-being of the person receiving support, and/or availability of other employees in the area.
3. In order to maintain adequate support services, those on-shift employees already at their assigned workplaces may be asked to remain on duty after their regular shift if there is not sufficient relief available for the next shift due to severe weather conditions.
4. An employee who is unable to get to work due to severe weather conditions will not receive pay for the shift, but can apply their accumulated credits towards the time lost – i.e. time owing or vacation days.

Policy: Water Temperature

Approved by the Board of Directors: Dec 13, 2018
*Applicable only where Intensive Support Residences

Policy # HS14

Policy: COVID-19 Vaccination Policy for Employees and Alternative Supports

Ministry Requirement

Approved by the Board of Directors: Mar 22, 2021
July 19, 2021
Revised July 2021

The Association is dedicated to ensuring the health and safety of all people supported and their families as well as employees, providers of alternative supports, volunteers and students. To assist in providing a safe work environment for not only its employees, volunteers and students but also the vulnerable population served and providers of alternative supports, CLSMA has created this policy.

The Association aims to:

1. Prevent acquisition of COVID-19 and Variants.
2. Give protection to people supported, employees, providers of alternative supports, volunteers and students in the short-term against symptomatic, confirmed COVID-19 disease in the event that they contract COVID-19.
3. Inform people supported, employees, alternative supports providers, volunteers and students of their immunization options and the potential consequences for non-immunization.
4. Demonstrate the Agency's commitment to accommodating employees who are unable to vaccinate for human rights related reasons where possible without undue hardship.

For the purpose of this policy:

1. A person is considered fully immunized if they have received the full series of a COVID-19 vaccine or combination of COVID-19 vaccines approved by Health Canada and they received their final dose of the COVID-19 vaccine at least 14 days ago. In the future, booster shots may be required to be fully vaccinated.
2. Human rights related restrictions may include medical/disability or religious restrictions.

Procedure

1. Disclosure Requirements

a. Prospective/New Employees or Alternative Supports Providers

Any offer made by CLSMA to a prospective employee or volunteer, or new contract proposal for a prospective alternative support provider will be conditional upon proof of vaccination for COVID-19. Where the candidate fails to provide proof of full vaccination, any offer or proposed contract will be rescinded. Two exceptions that may apply will be for candidates (1) who provide proof of first vaccination and are fully vaccinated within 4 weeks of start date; and (2) who provide proof of a human rights related restriction that prevents them from being vaccinated, in which case CLSMA will investigate whether accommodation is required and possible without undue hardship and accommodation will be provided if it is possible without undue hardship.

b. Existing Employees, Volunteers and Alternative Support Providers

Existing employees, students, volunteers and alternative support providers are required to provide disclosure of their vaccination status and proof of vaccination where they are vaccinated. Failure to provide such disclosure and proof will result in the person being considered unvaccinated for reasons that are not protected by the Human Rights Code.

2. Accommodation

a. Prospective Candidates

Should prospective/new employees, alternative supports providers, volunteers or students decline the COVID-19 vaccination, once available to them, for reasons related to disability, creed or any other ground protected by the Human Rights Code, the Association requests that they identify to CLSMA that declining the COVID-19 vaccine was based on a ground protected by the Human Rights Code. They will be asked to submit a Vaccination Declaration Form to request accommodation. The Association reserves the right to ask for information to substantiate the grounds, further to the normal workplace accommodation process. The Association is committed to human rights accommodation up to the point of undue hardship where a person is unable to vaccinate for human rights protected reasons. Such situations will be assessed on a case-by-case basis through the use of a risk assessment to determine whether accommodation is possible without undue hardship. Unfortunately, in some circumstances, accommodation may not be possible without undue hardship, in which case the offer or contract may be postponed, withdrawn or rescinded.

b. Current Employees, Alternative Support Providers, Volunteers and Students

Should current employees, alternative supports providers, volunteers or students decline the COVID-19 vaccination, once available to them, for reasons related to disability, creed or any other ground protected by the Human Rights Code, the Association requests that they identify to CLSMA that declining the COVID-19 vaccine was based on a ground protected by the Human Rights Code. They will be asked to submit a Vaccination Declaration Form to request accommodation. The Association reserves the right to ask for information to substantiate the grounds, further to the normal workplace accommodation process. The Association is committed to human rights accommodation up to the point of undue hardship where a person is unable to vaccinate for human rights protected reasons. Such situations will be assessed on a case-by-case basis through the use of a risk assessment to determine whether accommodation is possible without undue hardship. Where accommodation is not possible without undue hardship, an employee maybe subject to unpaid leave or layoff.

3. Alternatives to Vaccination (non-code grounds)

The alternative measures that may apply to an unvaccinated employee, alternative support provider, volunteer or student will depend on a variety of factors, including: recommendations by Public Health, support plans, contractual obligations with partnering entities, the type of work performed (whether direct support, administration/office work), the needs of people supported, vulnerability of other stake holders, whether there is an outbreak in the workplace, and the present community risk level (the zone that applies in the region and whether the area has a high rate of infection).

Alternatives to vaccination may include one or a combination of the following:

- a. Outbreak protocols: In the event of an outbreak (as defined by Public Health) at a residence operated by CLSMA, CLSMA unvaccinated employees will be placed on an unpaid leave of absence.
- b. Maintaining proper cautionary restrictions and preventative measures including the use of enhanced PPE.
- c. Reassignment: the employee may not be permitted to work with people supported (either those at high risk of susceptibility to COVID-19 or all people supported).
- d. Temporary remote work if possible.
- e. Modifications to the work/support performed.
- f. As a matter of last resort, temporary, unpaid leave of absence (during this time, unvaccinated employees may be permitted to use any unused vacation or any other leave options).
- g. In circumstances where no alternative work or contract is available due to the nature of the relationship and the needs of people supported, a layoff or termination of contract may be required.
- h. such other measures as may be developed based on current public health information and the risks identified.

An unvaccinated (non-code grounds) employee, alternative support provider, volunteer or student is required to complete an education session on vaccination. The information is based in science and provided by credible sources such as Health Canada and Public Health Ontario.

Other COVID-19 Protective Measures

All employees, alternative supports, volunteers and students must continue to comply with the Association's policies, protocols and rules with respect to physical distancing, masking, screening, personal protective equipment and any other measures intended to reduce the risk of transmission of COVID-19.

4. Reporting and Record Keeping

Acceptable proof of vaccination will include a Dose Administration Receipt.

Information about vaccination status will be collected by CLSMA as such information is reasonably necessary to assess risk to people supported and employees. Vaccination records will be maintained documenting COVID-19 vaccinations and unvaccinated status in a secure manner and will only be collected, used or disclosed as may be necessary for legitimate operational purposes or as directed or requested by governmental authorities. The vaccination related information will be managed in a manner that is consistent with existing agency policies related to the collection, use and disclosure of personal health information.

Review of Policy

This policy will be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect the latest scientific research, guidance and legislation from the Ontario government, federal government, local health unit and any other relevant health bodies.

 - a. A test result which incorrectly indicates that a particular condition or attribute is absent (e.g., a test indicates someone does not have COVID-19, when in fact they do).
2. False Positive
 - a. A test result which incorrectly indicates that a particular condition or attribute is present (e.g., a test indicates someone has COVID-19, when in fact they do not).
3. PCR Test (Polymerase Chain Reaction Test)
 - a. A test performed to detect genetic material from a specific organism, such as a virus. The test detects the presence of a virus if you are infected at the time of the test. The test could also detect fragments of virus even after you are no longer infected. For COVID-19, a PCR test for viral infection detects the virus or a component of the virus and tells you if you have a current COVID-19 infection. This is done using a swab from your nose or throat or in some cases a saliva sample.
4. Rapid Antigen Testing for COVID-19
 - a. An antigen test that looks for proteins from the COVID-19 virus.
 - b. It is used as an enhanced screening tool for asymptomatic individuals with no known exposure to COVID-19.
 - c. It should NOT be used for diagnosing someone with symptoms of or exposure to COVID-19.
 - d. Results are usually available within 15-20 minutes.
 - e. It has higher rates of false negative and false positive results than a PCR test for COVID-19.
 - f. All positive results need to be followed up with a PCR test to confirm a diagnosis of COVID-19.

Procedure

1. Eligibility for COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Testing

- a. Individuals eligible for rapid antigen testing must:
 - Be asymptomatic for COVID-19
 - Pass entry screening
- b. Eligible individuals can include:
 - Staff
 - People Supported
 - Visitors
 - Students
 - Contractors
 - Alternative Support Providers
 - Volunteers
- c. Rapid antigen testing can only be used in areas NOT deemed in outbreak.
- d. Individuals who have previously been infected with and recovered from COVID-19 should NOT undergo repeat testing/antigen screening for 90 days after their positive COVID-19 PCR test result.
- e. Other exemptions to COVID-19 rapid antigen testing requirements include:
 - i. Emergency/first responders responding to an emergency.
 - ii. Contracted service providers and privately engaged third party caregivers who require immediate site access due to an urgent health/support issue involving a person supported.
 - iii. Contracted service providers who require immediate site access due to an urgent building and/or equipment issue that could cause health and safety risks to occupants if not immediately addressed.
 - iv. Contracted service providers who may be attending to a building and/or equipment issues while the site has been vacated of all other occupants.

2. Frequency of COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Testing

- a. Frequency of rapid antigen testing will vary depending on:
 - An individual's role.
 - An individual's vaccination status.
 - CLSMA site.
 - Community risk level for COVID-19.
 - Other factors as needed and appropriate.

3. Consent for COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Testing

- a. All individuals undergoing rapid antigen testing must consent prior to being tested.
- b. Consent forms will be completed once for each individual.
- c. Signed consent forms will be kept on file according to CLSMA policies and procedures.
- d. Individuals may withdraw their consent at any time by notifying their Manager or ED.

4. Conducting COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Testing

- a. All individuals administering a rapid antigen test must be authorized to do so and have received appropriate training on proper test administration and other associated protocols.

- b. Prior to opening or using a testing kit, prepare a clean, flat surface and sanitize the surface with an appropriate sanitizer.
- c. Prior to conducting a test, persons administering a test must:
 - i. Don personal protective equipment (PPE) for droplet contact precautions.
 - ii. Check any expiry dates on the testing kit and its components.
 - iii. Check the testing kit and components to ensure they are not damaged or tampered with.
- d. Quality control testing must be done each time a new box of testing kits is opened.
 - i. Steps for quality control testing may vary depending on the type of rapid antigen test.
 - ii. The quality control test results must be documented by the tester.
 - iii. If quality control swabs pass, proceed to using the kit for testing.
 - iv. If quality control swabs are invalid, reseal the box, set it aside and notify ED.
 - A new box is then opened and quality control testing occurs on the new box.
- e. Protocols for testing vary depending on the type of test used.
- f. Prior to testing an individual, the tester must record the following information into the Antigen Rapid Test Results Tracker (Worksheet name: Rapid Test Results Tracker):
 - i. Two identifiers are needed for each person tested.
 - For staff members, this includes the first two letters of their first and last name.
 - For people supported and others, this includes the first two letters of their first and last name.
 - ii. The date of the test.
 - iii. The site at which the test is conducted.
- g. When the test is complete, the person administering the test must:
 - i. Read and certify the results in accordance with the test manufacturer's directions.
 - ii. Convey results in a confidential manner.
 - iii. Dispose of used devices and materials in a biohazard container.
 - iv. Remove and dispose of any labels from the testing table.
 - v. Record all test results in the Antigen Rapid Test Results Tracker and save and store the file securely.
- h. Staff may perform self-tests under the supervision of a trained individual. Staff are NOT able to verify or certify their own results.

5. Communicating Results of COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Testing

- a. Results of rapid antigen testing must be communicated in a confidential manner and every precaution necessary must be taken to maintain confidentiality of the results.
- b. If a test result is negative:
 - i. Negative results are only applicable if the person being tested has no symptoms and no known exposures.
 - ii. Persons should be counselled that the result is negative, and a false negative result is possible.
 - iii. Persons are to be reminded to continue to follow infection prevention and control measures and that visitors, families and contractors must adhere to CLSMA's PPE policies and procedures upon entry.
- c. If a test result is positive:

- i. A positive rapid antigen test is considered a preliminary positive result.
- ii. Manager or ED must be notified of a preliminary positive result.
- iii. Any staff receiving a preliminary positive result must notify their immediate supervisor that they have not passed the enhanced COVID-19 screening protocol.
- iv. Anyone who tests positive is instructed to self-isolate and arrange for PCR testing at their closest assessment centre.
 - They are NOT to enter CLSMA.
 - PCR must be completed within 24 hours.
- v. CLSMA notifies the appropriate Public Health Unit.
- vi. The testing area should then be cleaned and disinfected by the person conducting the test.

NOTE: Any staff member who tests positive before returning to work must have a confirmed negative PCR test and/or be cleared by the Manager or their local Public Health Unit.

Policy # HS 16

Policy: Respiratory Protection Program

Approved by the Board of Directors: Aug 3 2022

The Association is committed to ensuring the health and safety of its staff, volunteers, alternative support providers and all those who receive supports and services. To ensure compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act in regard to the use of N95 NIOSH approved respirators, the Association recognizes the need for and will provide fit testing for respiratory protection equipment and related staff training to minimize the potential risk for respiratory infection to all staff, coming into contact with a respiratory hazard. Non-compliance with the Respiratory Protection Program is subject to discipline, up to and including dismissal from employment/volunteerism.

The Employer will:

- a. Ensure that the respiratory protection program is prepared and implemented as a means to increase awareness of respiratory hazards and to inform on the means of protection against the hazards.
- b. Maintain an adequate supply of accepted respirators and a list of all respirator users in the organization.
- c. Ensure that all persons required to use respirators receive fit testing and are trained on use and care of respirators and refresher training as needed.
- d. Monitor the use of respirators.
- e. Ensure that the respiratory protection program is reviewed annually with the Joint Health and Safety Committee.

The Employee will:

- a. Use the respirator in accordance with the written instructions and training provided by the employer.
- b. Will be clean-shaven for fit testing or when respirator is required, to ensure a proper seal between their face and the respirator face piece.
- c. Inspect the respirator and perform a user seal-check prior to use.
- d. Notify their supervisor in writing of any condition or change that may impact on their ability to use a respirator safely.
- e. Report inventory shortages or malfunctions of respiratory protection equipment to the supervisor in writing.
- f. Attend and participate in any training or fit-testing sessions as requested.

Joint Health and Safety Committee will:

- a. Be consulted on any changes to the program. Maintain communication with the employer and monitor the program in an advisory capacity.

- b. Address any health and safety concerns brought to the committee's attention.

Procedure

1. Hazard Assessment

The decision to use respiratory protection must be based on a risk assessment of the potential hazards where all controls have been considered. This assessment will be conducted by a Manager or delegate, using tools such as a respirator screener.

A hazard assessment for an infectious agent should identify;

- which infectious agents are present
- what is the mode of transmission (droplets or airborne infection)
- who may be exposed

It is important to recognize that personal protective equipment for workers is only one component of the overall program required to provide a safe environment. When all other control measures have been implemented, but the hazard has not been eliminated or reduced to safe levels, the employer should provide appropriate respiratory protection and other personal protective equipment for workers.

2. Fit Testing

NIOSH approved N95 respirators do not work properly unless they fit the wearer. The quality of the respiratory fit is determined by the seal where the respirator meets the wearer's face. A fit test is required for all tight-fitting respirators including the NIOSH approved N95 and must be completed prior to initial use. More specifically, AFTER the employee has completed the employee's health assessment and BEFORE they are required to wear the respirator at work. Exceptions applied when a government declared pandemic directions allow use of respirators without fit testing. Fit testing will be repeated every two years or may be required sooner when there is a change in available respirators (make, model or size), or there is a change in the employee's physical condition that could affect respirator fit (dental changes, cosmetic surgery, facial injury, or >10% increase or decrease in body weight). Fit test records will include;

- Date and name of person tested.
- Name of fit tester.
- Specific make, model and size of respirator.
- Type of fit test and agent used.
- Pass/fail criteria of method.
- List of additional PPE worn during fit test.
- Notes on restrictions (e.g. facial hair, dentures, eyewear).
- Results of comfort assessments (observation, movement and score).
- User's competency (including pre-use inspection, donning/doffing, user seal checks) and result of fit test.
- Result of post fit-testing comfort assessment validation question.
- Info on unsuccessful fit test and nature/cause(s) for the failure.
- Maintenance and repair of equipment.

Fit test records will be kept in the employee's electronic file.

3. Health Assessment

At the time of fit testing, employees will complete an initial health assessment to identify medical conditions that may make the use of the respirators themselves a hazard to the individual. If the assessment identifies a health concern regarding the use of a respirator, the employee should obtain an opinion from a health care professional regarding their ability to use a respirator. For employees who are unable to use a respirator in a specific work situation every effort will be made to provide a work accommodation. Employees may be required to provide updated medical information for continued accommodation. The agency maintains a confidential record of each employee's fit testing requirements for the life of the employee file.

4. NIOSH Approved N95 Respirators

Will be provided to all employees and are currently the minimum standard for most scenarios with airborne infectious agents. For example, respirators will be worn when there is a suspected or confirmed case of Covid-19 in a person supported and/or if a support staff has been exposed to Covid-19. Respirators must not be worn for any other purpose without the knowledge and approval of the supervisor. No employee will be allowed to wear a respirator or be fit tested unless they are clean-shaven and a proper seal can be made. An employee must only use the specific respirator (same manufacturer, model and size) they were fit tested with and shall not share respirators. In addition, the respirator shall not be altered in any manner.

5. Training for the Use and Care of Respirators will include:

- Donning, user seal check and safe removal (doffing) of respirator.
- Assessing user's comfort level of respirator.
- Communication with the user as to what model of NIOSH approved N95 respirator as been determined for their use.
- Care and storage of the respirator.
- Use of the respirator in conjunction with other PPE.

6. Reassignment:

During an outbreak, if an employee has not already passed a N95 FIT test, the agency will reassign hours if possible.
